

Social Security Policy Innovations Challenge: Ensuring Adequacy for Workers

MARCH 5th FACILITATED DISCUSSION AGENDA

8:45 am: Registration

9:00 am: Coffee and Networking

Livestream participants will have a moderated “table” (chat box) to facilitate networking and introductions. Moderated by Renée Landers, Professor of Law at Suffolk University Law School and Vice Chair of the Academy's Board of Directors.

9:30 am: Opening Remarks by Challenge Organizers

William Arnone, Chief Executive Officer, National Academy of Social Insurance

Joel Eskovitz, Senior Policy Advisor, AARP Public Policy Institute

9:45 am: Part I. The Challenge: Goals and Process

William Arnone, Chief Executive Officer, National Academy of Social Insurance

Elaine Weiss, Lead Policy Analyst - Income Security, National Academy of Social Insurance

10:30 am: Part II. Understanding the Target Population

Elaine Weiss, Lead Policy Analyst - Income Security, National Academy of Social Insurance

Romina Boccia, Director, Grover M. Hermann Center for the Federal Budget, Heritage Foundation

Moderator: William Arnone, Chief Executive Officer, National Academy of Social Insurance

11:30 am: Break for Table Discussions and Networking Lunch

Livestream participants will have a moderated “table” (chat box) to facilitate networking and introductions. Moderated by Renée Landers, Professor of Law at Suffolk University Law School and Vice Chair of the Academy's Board of Directors.

12:00 pm: Social Security Basics

Monique Morrissey, Economist, Economic Policy Institute

Karen Glenn, Deputy Chief Actuary, Social Security Administration

Stephen C. Goss, Chief Actuary, Social Security Administration

1:30 pm: Open Discussion/Q&A

Moderator: William Arnone, Chief Executive Officer, National Academy of Social Insurance

1:55 pm: Closing Remarks

William Arnone, Chief Executive Officer, National Academy of Social Insurance

2:00 pm: Event Concludes

Questions? Please contact Elaine Weiss, eweiss@nasi.org.